SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION:

Please tick to confirm you have included all of the following with your application. This can be supplied in the format you have chosen to promote your application in the best way:-

- Your current woodworking ability
- Tell us a little about your background / life journey and any other information that supports our core criteria regarding your education, your determination and potential.
- The reason why you want to do the course
- Why do you think you should be considered for the Thorkild Hansen Scholarship?
- Images of any of your completed work – please send via Dropbox or similar. A maximum of two photos per piece and in JPEG format. If attaching images to an email they should be no larger than 1MB per photo.
- A letter of support from your teacher, tutor or employer fully endorsing and supporting your application.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA:

The recipient of the 2024 Scholarship will have the full course fee of $8250 paid for by the Centre for Fine Woodworking. This also covers the cost of materials used in the programme.

There may be a contribution to travel and accommodation up to $750 at the discretion of the Trust Manager and receipts will be required before any travel allowance is covered.

The Selection Panel will look at all your supporting documentation (as outlined above) and most importantly that sits within Thorkild Hansen's values of:-

- Absolute attention to detail
- Working towards the highest level of craftsmanship
- The ability to strive and drive to be the very best that you can be in terms of skill and technique

The decision of the selection panel is final and you will be contacted by email on 15th August 2023 with the decision regarding your application.
